ah! I have so much to learn! Redeemer and Bridegroom: You have asked us to be alone with You, for even just a brief moment, and enjoy Your Presence in privacy; lead us in the silence of a desert, where You will speak tenderly to our hearts, You and I, I and You, alone, delighting in each other's presence in privacy under the starlight; I love what You said then about Israel to Your prophet Hosea: "that is why I am going to lure her and lead her out into the wilderness and speak to her heart;" (Hosea 2:16)

I will be embracing then Your Paternal and Intimate relationship in these moments of privacy, away from the clamour of the world, away from the chaos of this world, because in the desert You will infuse in me an Understanding and a Knowledge of Yourself, that will exceed any earthly wisdom and capacities I could have had in me, when I belonged to the world; my ignorance of not knowing You and of understanding You, will be of the past and will be buried in the land of oblivion, were I to follow now this Path that You will be setting for me...

you will obtain more than that in the desert; you will be reborn of Me through grace, that transcends all that can be imagined, your soul will despise all that is not Me after I would have spoken to your heart; yes, I will lure those who are roaming aimlessly on this earth, as dark shadows, like soot that disfigures their soul, resembling

Death, and will lure them to the desert and when I will speak to their heart, their soul, touched by My Tender Love, will melt within Me and they will devote themselves to Me; I will vest them with what they lacked, I will start vesting them with Faith, the enemy of My Enemy, who cannot bear to watch the dazzling brightness of Faith, from thereon, this soul will be clinging on My Word and I will be increasing in this soul while she will be decreasing; those who listen, as they would come out with might and with a touch of wit; so let every soul cry out in the desert, like St. Peter on Mount Tabor: 'Master, it is wonderful for us to be here with Thee;' (Mark 9:5 and Luke 9:33)...

my delight is in You, Your faithfulness lasts age after age, keep me cloistered in Your Heart; You Yourself have chosen me, before I was born to be Your bearer, let Your Holy Since You first visited me, my feet had tried by opening my ear a little, I have received Your Instructions and Your melodious Hymn of Love, learning how to love;

I have earnestly sought what was right, and my very core yearning to pursue Your will, I locked my hands on You, clinging on You, determined not to let You go, whom my heart loves; Your School has taught us Instruction, and Your Royal Courts: Wisdom; You have offered us lavishly Wisdom; I give thanks to You, my Lord and King;

Illustrious and Majestic, the heavens and earth are Yours with all its inhabitants as well, they are Yours and all that is lavishly on it; in these last days You are bringing to Your people a Message of Peace; You are fulfilling the Scriptures that the 'world of the past will be gone'* and while sitting on Your Throne You are saying: 'now I am making the whole of creation new';* You are the Most High,
